BALLOT BOXES TELL THE STORY

Beautiful Day, but Voters Slow in Getting to the Polls

MORMONS REMAIN AT HOME

DISGUSTED WITH THE INJECTION OF APOSTLE REED SMOOT.

Fifth Municipal Ward.

Big votes early in the day and the large proportion of women voters were features of election day in the Fifth municipal ward.

The Republicans made big claims of an especially energetic assault, but was successful by the small plurality of the total vote. They got a percent-of the total vote.

From early morning until the polls closed the three parties were busy in the First ward, and all day long the workers claimed it for their candidates. Perhaps the Morris men worked with more vim than either of the other parties, and along in the afternoon it could be seen that they were cutting in on but transfers were numerous. The election was remarkably quiet in this part of the city. None of the district to the voting places and the judges were kept busy. A number of this part of the city. None of the district to the voting places and the judges were kept busy. A number of challenges were made, but the votes were sworn in. Up until noon 280 votes had been east. In the afternoon there was a been east. In the afternoon there was a lull and then the voting commenced strong again toward the close of the day. Heavy claims were made by the American party and it was declared they had polled all their votes.

assed off pleaantly. There was hus-ing by all parties, but it was all in ood part. The "Americans" had the est organization, the greatest num-ers, and seemed to be most successful getting out their voters. Mormons in getting out their voiers. Mornions in the outer districts seemed disgusted with the wrangling within their ranks due to the injection of Apostle Reed Smoot into the local campaign, and remained away from the polis. This accounts in great part for the relatively good showing of the "Americans." It ecame known early in the day that ynch was out of the running, and a ine effort was made by the Democratic workers to combine the opposition on Morris, But many of the Republicans were either too stubborn to vote or re-fused to vote at all. In the upper dis-tricts the vote was gotten out with workers and teams, but still the voters came in slowly. At the Thirty-fifth district polling place the Democratic and street. At the Thirty-fourth district Republican checkers occupied a tent each that had been pitched in the the Democratic and Republican workers occupied a tent in common, while the Americans stood on the sidewalk. During the afternoon Held's band discoursed music through that part of town from the Morris band wagon, The feature of the day was the frantic efforts of Bishop George R. Emery, Bishop W. J. Beattle and Apostle Reed Smoot to stamp out the report that Apostle Smoot had conceded the defeat of Lynch.

Fourth Municipal Ward.

Heavy voting did not commence in the Fourth until afternoon. By 3 o'clock the balloting was on in earnest and the nolls in the various wards were crowd-

The different candidates visited the various polling places in this ward during the duy and never failed to express confidence to those who asked that the election was going their way. Reports from untown were saught, but as was that they were last in the race.

Challenges were the feature of vesterday's election at the 52nd district. Workers from all parties stood ready to defend their interests and during the day about seventy-five votes were challenged. In spite of this many swore in their vote but a majority of them promised to bring evidence that they were not illegal voters. When the polls closed about half of the contested ballots were not voted. The voting was slow in the forenoon and at o'clock only 18s had been cast. Late in the afternoon there was a string of carriages lined up in front of the polls; Twice the number of votes were polled in the afternoon and by the time the polls closed a good percentage of the votes in the district were cast. The register showed that there were 750 votes in the district, but only two-thirds of them were cast. According to reports many of the voters had changed their places of residence and the actual number of votes amounted to 150 as near as could be figured.

Many Efforts to Find Him Prove to Be in Vain.

Chairman Darmer of the American party was caught on the run last night. Early in the evening the headquarters of the organization were practically destroyed by the party's enthusiasis. All the partitions were torn down and much of the furniture was destroyed in order to provide material for a great bonfire in Second South street.

"The fight is over and done with, said Mr. Darmer, "and I hope no hitterness is left. While I am gratified beyond measure come our victory, and I helieve you will concede it was a sweeping one, I do not feel that the credit is due so much to my efforts as to the efforts of the loyal men and women who rallied to my support and to the support of the principles for which the American party stands.

"Never did a chairman receive more cordial, more generous assistance. I feet that not only the American party, as a party, but the entire citizenship, owes a debt of gratitude to these workers. Sait Lake has become, through their endeavors, an American city, a city in which every man shall have equal opportunities with every other man, regardless of religion, regardless of politics. I believe that the election of the American city ticket and a majority of the councilmanic nominees of the party will mean a greater Sait Lake, and that American city tieget and a majority be the councilmanic nominees of the party will mean a greater Salt Lake, and that will benefit every one of us. "And tell my friends that I am very, very happy," Mr. Darmer concluded, as he stepped into a cab and started for home to sleep a few hours.

chairman Willard Hanson of the Republican city committee went home early in the evening, according to the reports at headquarters, feeling very much under the weather. Senator Smoot also went away at an early hour, but a faithful few were left on guard until after midnight. Among them were Internal Revenue Collector Callister, "Fussy Jimmy" Anderson, Fred Price, James T. Hammond and some others. Speaking for the party, after he had been asked if he still believed a vote for Morris was a vote for Thompson, Mr. Callister said:

"We have crowed a good many times. It is up to us to be cheerful in defeat. A parity that cannot accept defeat philosophically does not deserve to win victories. I can only express the hope that Mr. Thompson and his associates will give the city a first class administration."

EZRA THOMPSON PLEASED.

Says the People of Salt Lake Will Now Have Peace.

"Naturally I am much pleased at the result of the election," said Mayor-elect Ezra Thompson. "I do not regard it as a personal victory in any sense, either. The people of Sait Lake wanted the liberty and the peace the American party stood for and under my administration they are going to have it. They wanted peace badly enough to fight for it." and here Mr. Thompson smiled, "and they are entitled to it."

Thompson smiled, "and they are entitled to it."

"My one purpose will be the building up of a greater Salt Lake. You may rest assured that I will not do anything to hurt the Democratic party. the Republican party or any other party and I will be more than glad to have every citizen join with me in a united effort to advance the municipality. You may say, too, that I have for my opponents in the camraign that has ended nothing but the kineliest feeling. I hope they will join with me, as I certainly would have joined with them, in any proposition having for its end and object the furtherance of Salt Lake's best interests."

"You will not find a spot as big as a finger nail on the Democratic campaign," said City Chairman Martinean, to whom every member of the Democratic party is given credit for a magnificent fight against tremendous odds. "We made our fight on the square and in the open. We lost, but our judgment was abundantly vindicated. A vote for Morris was not a vote for Thompson. Those who voted for Lynch under the impression that that was the only way to defeat Mr. Thompson know their error without calling attention to it.

"Nor am I going home feeling despondent. The Democratic as a matter of facent.

"Nor am I going home feeling despondent. The Democrats, as a matter of fact, have won a great victory today. They have smashed the last cog, the last wheel in the Reed Smoot machine. I do not believe that the people of Salt Lake City will ever again be deceived by the prophecies or the pretensions of the Smoot-Callister-Anderson combination. And I am ready to go forward again to battle under the banner of Democracy whenever the party shall need my services."

ing all of their candidates with the ex-ception of one man. The sole Democrat to reach the promised land was Webb, a candidate for trustee of the sanitary district

The Republicans elected four judges of the superior court by pluralities ranging from 20,000 to 25,000, one judge to fill a vacancy on the bench of the superior court by a plurality of about 1.000, a judge of the circuit court by 10.000, and eight out of nine members of the board of sanitary trustees by pluralities ranging from 1.000 to 5.000. A strong fight was waged for the presidency of the board of trustees between McCormick, the Republican candidate, and Wenter, the Democratic nomined McCormick was successful by about 4.000, and Wenter failed to gain a posi-tion as a member of the board by at least 1.000 votes. The race between Webb, the high man on the Democratic ticket, and Baker, the low man on the Republican side, was very close, with the chances in favor of Webb, although at midnight Baker was canceded to have a fighting chance.

A number of important questions were up for consideration by the voters, and all of them were carried by large majorities. They included an amendment to the charter of the city by vit-tue of which the term of the mayor of the city is lengthened from two to four years, the abolishment of the present system of justices' courts, the creation of a forest preserve in Cook county the right of the city to regulate the prices of gas, and authority to operate an electric light plant and sell to private consumers all of the current not used for municipal purposes.

An election for congressman was held in the Fourteenth Illinois district, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late B. F. Marsh. James McKinney (Republican) of Aldeo was elected by 4,500over J. Howard Patee of Monmouth, Democrat, About half of the usual vote was cast.

Republicans Increase Their Hold on the Legislature.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—The election in New Jersey increased the Republican hold on the state legislature and makes it impossible that a Democrat should succeed United States Senator John F. Dryden in 1907. In the state senate Republicans made a gain of three, electing Republicans from Gloucester, Salem and Somerset counties, which for the last three years have had Democratic senators. Colby, the Independent Republican in Essex county, whose fight against the machine of his party attracted wide machine of his party attracted whee-spread interest, was swept into office by a majority which approached that which his county gave a year ago, when the local ticket had the help of the national ticket to carry it along.
